Reading

Here are the sounds you have been using so far, to read your sentences. Point to each letter and say the sound it can make:

s	a	t	p	i	n
---	---	---	---	---	---

Now we are going to read some sentences with new sounds! Point to each letter and say the sound it can make:

m	d	g	o	c	k
ck	e	u	r	If you cannot instantly recall these sounds, be sure to practice them every single day at home!!

We are also going to meet some new characters. Blend the sounds to read their names:

Read the sentences about our characters and draw a picture to show you have understood what you read. Remember to say each sound and blend them together to read each word.

Nip is at the pond.

Nip stands on the sand.

Nip gets his pink pants.

Nip gets in the pond.

Lots of crocs pop up in the pond.

Nip and the crocs snap in the pond.

Writing

Find your labels from yesterday's writing lesson.
Turn your labels into at least 2 sentences to describe The Gruffalo.

For example: The Gruffalo has a green wart on his nose. He has purple spikes on his back and a long fluffy brown tail.

Make sure you use:

- Capital letters ABC
